

Penn Waste Update for refuse and recycling

Penn waste has issued the following statement regarding pick-ups through the excessive heat warning:

Due to the excessive heat forecasted, Penn Waste routes may start earlier than normal in order to complete routes prior to the hottest time of the day. In order to ensure collection, we recommend placing your material curbside the evening before your collection day. This is for the safety of our employees.